THE LITURGY OF THE WORD (All Sit)

FIRST READING ().

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah 31:31-32a. 33-34a.

“Behold, the days are coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah, not like the covenant which I made with their fathers when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt.

But this is the covenant which I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it upon their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. And no longer shall each man teach his neighbour and each his brother, saying, ‘Know the LORD,’ for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord.”

The Word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm: Taste and see that the Lord is good!

1. I will bless the Lord at all times, praise of him is always in my mouth. In the Lord my soul shall its boast; the humble shall hear and be glad. R
2. Glorify the Lord with me; together let us praise his name. I sought the Lord, and he answered me; from all my terrors he set me free. R
3. Look towards him and be radiant; let your face not be not be abashed. This lowly one called; the LORD heard, and rescued him from all his distress. R

4. The angel of the LORD is encamped around those who fear him, to rescue them. Taste and see that the LORD is good. Blessed the man who seeks refuge in him. R

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION (All Stand)

If we love one another, God abides in us, and his love is perfected in us.

GOSPEL READING

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John 15:12-16.

At that time: Jesus said to his disciples, “This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you.

No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you. You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide; so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you.”

1. As Christ loves his bride, the Church, may this man love and experience his wife.
We pray to the Lord

We pray to the Lord
3. That all things upon this earth become alive with the love of Christ.

4. For all words between man and wife, that they may be spoken out of the heart of love.
We pray to the Lord

5. As the universe is a source of rejoicing to our Father, let Jerry and Mariska be a constant source of joy to each other.
We pray to the Lord

Celebrant: May their love and goodness grow in splendour each day of their lives. May the nearness of one to the other remind them always of the oneness of God and man.
